Re: Dunn Mine
ACT/037/017

Dear Brad:

We have a map of the proposed surface disturbance for the Dunn Mine (Revised 10/31/77), but it does not show the location of top soil and ore stockpiles, waste rock dumps, water retention ponds, or other surface facilities.

We would appreciate it if you could provide us with another revised map showing these features. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

JAMES W. SMITH
